Dear Zonta Clubs, Zontians and Friends of Zonta,

On behalf of the Zonta International Foundation Board, I am pleased to share with you the Zonta International Foundation's Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2013 (1 June 2012 to 31 May 2013).

This biennium, we are challenging ourselves to raise US$4,938,000 to support international service projects and educational programs benefiting women, girls and communities around the globe. Zonta clubs, individual members and friends of Zonta have responded generously, contributing more than US$2.5 million during the first year of the biennium, putting us well on our way to reaching our goal. On behalf of the Zonta International Foundation Board and the individuals who benefit from your donations to the Zonta International Foundation, I am humbled by your generosity and thank you for your continued support.

On behalf of the Zonta International Foundation Board and the individuals who benefit from your donations to the Zonta International Foundation, I am humbled by your generosity and thank you for your continued support.

Please know that your donations to the Foundation are truly making a difference. In Liberia, you are helping to provide life-changing surgical treatment and rehabilitation services to women and girls suffering from obstetric fistula, restoring their dignity and giving them a new beginning. In Rwanda, your generosity ensures that mothers do not unknowingly transmit HIV to their children and ensures that women and children, victimized by violence, receive the necessary medical, legal and psycho-social services to move beyond the violence. We are all well aware that worldwide violence against women and girls continues to occur at an alarming rate. However, your support of the Zonta International Strategies to End Violence Against Women (ZISVAW) Program is raising awareness of the issue in Honduras, Samoa and 11 targeted countries throughout Africa and Asia where violence against women and girls is all too common and is transforming the notion that this violence is acceptable.

Your commitment to ensuring quality educational and professional opportunities to women and girls in your local community and around the world is demonstrated by your support for the Foundation's Amelia Earhart Fellowship Fund, Jane M. Klausman (JMK) Women in Business Scholarship Fund, and Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Award Fund. In fact, your continued generosity of these programs enabled us to increase the number of Young Women in Public Affairs Awards, as well as the dollar amount of each YWPA Award and JMK Scholarship. The recipients of these educational scholarships and awards are a truly diverse and outstanding group of scholars and future leaders, and I thank you for your generosity which enables us to recognize them and support their continued success.

I encourage you to read on for more information about these programs and the individuals and communities whose lives have been changed thanks to the Zonta International Foundation and your continued generosity and commitment to improving the lives of women and girls around the world. We are truly grateful for your dedication to Zonta International and the Zonta International Foundation and look forward to sharing the continued success of our work with you throughout the remainder of the biennium.

Sincerely,

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS

Providing life-changing surgical treatment free of charge in Liberia; preventing mother-to-child transmission of HIV and gender-based violence in Rwanda; making cities safer for women and girls in Honduras; curbing violence in rural communities in the Pacific island of Samoa; changing attitudes about violence against women in 11 countries throughout Africa and Asia; and expanding educational and professional opportunities for women around the globe. Zonta International Foundation is making a difference in the lives of thousands of women and girls thanks to the generous contributions of Zonta International's nearly 30,000 members and 1,200 Zonta clubs in 65 countries worldwide. During the first year of the 2012–2014 Biennium, the Foundation raised US$2,518,688 to support Zonta International's projects and programs, putting the Foundation a little more than halfway to reaching its goal of raising US$4,938,000 this biennium. Thank you to the Zonta clubs, Zontians and friends of Zonta who have given generously this year!

International Service Fund

Contributions to the Zonta International Foundation's International Service Fund support projects that seek to improve the legal, political, economic, educational and health status of women in developing countries. Since 1923, the Foundation has provided more than US$11 million from the International Service Fund to support projects that have improved the lives of more than 2 million women in 37 countries.

This biennium, Zonta International is supporting two projects through contributions to the International Service Fund.

Elimination of New Pediatric HIV Infection and Prevention and Response to Survivors of Domestic and Gender Based Violence in Rwanda

Zonta International has partnered with UNICEF to support efforts to prevent the transmission of HIV from mother to child in Rwanda since 2008 and the prevention of gender-based violence since 2010. This biennium, Zonta International will contribute a record US$1 million to UNICEF to build upon previous efforts with the expanded availability of PMTCT (prevention of mother-to-child transmission) and family package services and additional One Stop Centers to respond to domestic and gender based violence. Zonta visited the Rwanda project site in 2013, resulting in a video of the project.

US$1,000,000 to UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund

Rwanda has seen remarkable progress in these areas thanks to Zonta International and UNICEF's generous contributions. To date, approximately 89 percent of antenatal care facilities offer PMTCT services and 62 percent of HIV-positive mothers are receiving antiretroviral therapy to prevent the transmission of HIV to their children. Zonta International's contributions also helped to fund a pilot One Stop Center where survivors of domestic and gender based violence can access medical, legal, psychosocial and police support in one, safe location. The successes, challenges and lessons learned from this pilot center will be used to create One Stop Centers in all five provinces of Rwanda, greatly expanding the availability of services to survivors.

Angelique, a 25-year-old mother, learned she was HIV-positive during pregnancy. Thanks to the antiretroviral medication she received, her son is HIV-negative. Angelique also benefits from the full range of family package services offered at her local health center. "My dream is for my baby boy to live a healthy life. I no longer feel as an outcast in my society and among my relatives, thanks to the support I get from nurses and fellow women and men I meet during support group sessions as Musanze Health Center," said Angelique.

Liberia Fistula Program

Obstetric fistula is a hole in the birth canal caused by prolonged, obstructed labor without medical attention that often results in a stillborn baby and leaves the mother incontinent and in some cases paralyzed. In addition to the physical injury, women suffering from obstetric fistula also experience intense emotional suffering and many are ostracized from their families and communities, leaving them to suffer in isolation. Obstetric fistula, however, is treatable and perhaps more importantly, preventable with access to the appropriate medical care.

Zonta International, in partnership with UNFPA, has been supporting efforts to prevent and treat obstetric fistula in Liberia and provide rehabilitation services to survivors since 2008. A total of 1,020 women and girls in Liberia have received free surgical treatment and 230 have graduated from the rehabilitation program and returned to their communities to live healthy and productive lives. These survivors are now being trained to provide fistula outreach within their communities in order to prevent additional cases as prevention is key to the elimination of obstetric fistula.

Princess is one beneficiary of Zonta International's support. She was in labor for three days before she was taken to a clinic for medical attention. Her baby was stillborn, and she had developed an obstetric fistula. Six years later, she underwent surgery to repair the fistula and graduated from the rehabilitation program thanks to the Liberia Fistula Project and supporters like Zonta International and UNFPA. "I cannot describe how happy I am that as I graduate from the rehabilitation center I will be able to earn money for myself," Princess said.

Population Fund

Since 1998, the Zonta International Strategies to End Violence Against Women Fund has supported projects that promote and protect the human rights of all women and girls and reduce the incidences of violence against them by seeking to change personal and/or political knowledge, attitudes and behaviors contributing to gender-based violence. To date, Zonta International has provided more than US$2 million from the ZISVAW Fund to support 40 projects in 23 countries around the globe.

During the 2012–2014 Biennium, Zonta International is supporting three projects through contributions to the ZISVAW Fund.

Global Partnership on Edutainment for Social Change

Edutainment—the use of traditional and contemporary media (television and radio soap series, music videos, computer games, comic books, street theater, social media, mobile technology, talk and reality TV shows and film) to educate an audience—is being used successfully around the globe to transform the notion that violence against women is normal and therefore inevitable. This biennium, Zonta International has committed more than US$800,000 to the UN Trust Fund to fund edutainment strategies in 11 countries in Africa and Asia. Large scale projects are underway in Bangladesh and Nigeria and smaller scale projects are planned for Afghanistan, Egypt, Mali, Niger, Pakistan, Rwanda, Somalia, Sudan and Vietnam.

During the first year of the project, the focus was on capacity building and training on how organizations in each of the 11 target countries can effectively apply edutainment strategies to combat violence against women. In the two pilot countries of Bangladesh and Nigeria, edutainment strategies also got underway. In Nigeria, plans for a television series and talk show were started; and, in Bangladesh, the focus was on a campaign on sexual harassment which will be launched in early 2014.

“What we learned from the monitoring and evaluation training is that we need to have clarity in our concepts. That lobbying with powerhouses is important. And that the results should reflect change,” said Sonia Qaiser of the Women’s Empowerment Group from Pakistan.

Safe Cities for Women in Honduras

Zonta International has been supporting the Safe Cities Program since 2008, first in El Salvador and Guatemala from 2008 to 2012 and now in Honduras where violence against women and violations of women’s human rights have grown at an alarming rate in recent years. The Safe Cities Program seeks to implement practical measures to increase women’s safety in urban spaces and prevent violence against women through the collaboration of local government, women’s organizations, and private citizens.

With the support of the Safe Cities Program and Zonta International, the Center for the Prevention, Treatment and Rehabilitation to Victims of Torture and Their Families (CPTRT) launched a research study on intersectional violence affecting women in the two target neighborhoods of Tegucigalpa—Nueva Suyapa and Villanueva. The Safe Cities Program will use the information gained from this study to enhance the advocacy efforts of women in these neighborhoods and will draft security agendas that will be presented to local and national authorities to ensure that women are included in the agenda. The goal is to develop a new security concept that does not involve weapons or militarization but instead focuses on violence prevention.

Empowering Rural Women in Samoa to Combat Violence

Physical and sexual violence in the home is common in Samoa where the village and family structure are extremely important for survival and abuse is justified as an inevitable part of family life. Survivors of violence lack support networks, access to resources and services and opportunities to earn income, which often leads to them staying with the perpetrator. Zonta International’s support for this program will help to empower communities in rural Samoa to prevent and combat violence against women through grassroots advocacy campaigns; enhanced communication between SVSG, police and the community to increase the use of the formal justice system; increased awareness of legal reforms; informed and active support networks for women; and livelihood training to challenge women’s lack of economic independence.

Thanks to Zonta International’s support, efforts to combat violence against women in Samoa are already seeing some positive results. The issue received increased attention thanks to the Samoa Victim Support Group’s (SVSG) Torch of Peace which reached communities throughout Samoa. SVSG’s advocacy efforts also resulted in the successful passage of the Crimes Act 2013, which included many of SVSG submissions, including harsher penalties for sexual crimes, and the Family Safety Act 2013, which provides for greater protection of women and their families in the handling of domestic violence. In April 2013, the President of SVSG was also invited to join the newly formed Samoa Parliamentary Group for Population & Development, which will help to secure support for the project from Government Ministries and ensure sustainability of efforts to prevent violence against women after the project concludes.

“It was an honour to become a village representative with the SVSG (Samoa Victim Support Group); I’ve been involved with the Samoa Victim Support Group since 2009. In 2011 I got fully involved in awareness that was been held in Savaii. That’s when I realized the heart of this kind of service; we (the village representatives) worked undercover in the villages to help people who are victimized by others, especially women and children, because they are so vulnerable and as such, are scared to speak up,” Village Representative Leituala Leilua Faiva. ■

Amelia Earhart Fellowship

This year, Zonta celebrates the 75th anniversary of the Amelia Earhart Fellowship, one of Zonta International's longest running programs

This year, Zonta celebrates the 75th anniversary of the Amelia Earhart Fellowship, one of Zonta International's longest running programs. Established in 1938 in honor of famed Zontian and aviatrix, Amelia Earhart, Zonta has awarded 1,403 Fellowships, totaling US$8.3 million, to 983 women from 68 countries around the globe. During the first year of the 2012–2014 Biennium, nearly US$300,000 was raised in support of the Amelia Earhart Fellowship Program; however, additional funding is needed to ensure that Zonta can continue to support women in the fields of aerospace-related science and aerospace-related engineering.

Zonta's Amelia Earhart Fellows are the best and brightest in their fields and are able to conduct cutting edge research thanks to the support of Zonta International. Hyerim Kim, a 2013 Amelia Earhart Fellow, is a citizen of South Korea, studying Aerospace Engineering at Texas A&M University. Her research involves studying the design of interplanetary space missions using energy efficient trajectories that take advantage of natural dynamics in the solar system. This low energy trajectory technology, called the Interplanetary Superhighway, allows for long duration space missions with minimum fuel requirements. Her research contributes to designing deep space missions including the exploration, mitigation, and mining of near-earth asteroids that pose a threat to Earth. Ms. Kim is working on the design of the spacecraft bus and payload system for the Apophis Exploration and Mitigation Platform, a space mission designed to study and potentially stop the near-earth asteroid 99942 Apophis. She is investigating the optimal low thrust trajectories from earth to near-earth asteroids with the possibility of extracting raw materials from them.

Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship

Established in 1998, Zonta International's Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship recognizes emerging women business leaders pursuing undergraduate or master's degrees in business management. Each year, Zonta International selects 32 recipients for district scholarships of US$1,000 each, in addition to 12 international scholarships. Since the program's inception, Zonta International has awarded a total of 314 Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships to women from 44 countries. This biennium, thanks to the generosity of donors to the Scholarship Fund, the dollar amount of the international Scholarship was increased from US$5,000 to US$7,000.

Nupur Upadhyay, a law and commerce student at the University of Auckland in New Zealand, is one of 12 international recipients of Zonta International's 2012 Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships. Nupur has focused her studies on the world of financial institutions and markets, understanding consumer choice, international business, and the intersection of law and commerce. In addition to her educational achievements, Nupur serves as the Senior Editor of the Auckland University Law Review and volunteers with Equal Justice Project, a community organization that helps students from disadvantaged areas with legal issues, and the Business Women's Mentoring Programme, where she networks with other women in business and mentors younger students.

Young Women in Public Affairs Award

Zonta International's Young Women in Public Affairs Award was established to honor exceptional young women who have demonstrated strong leadership skills and an early commitment to public service and civic causes. Since the program's inception in 1990, Zonta has presented 679 Awards to 597 young women from 51 countries. Zonta annually presents up to 32 district Awards of US$1,000 each; and, this biennium, will award 10 international recipients an additional US$4,000 each, an increase from the 5 international Awards of US$3,000 each awarded previously.

Madelyn McGlynn from the United States is a recipient of the 2013 Young Women in Public Affairs Award. At the age of 12, Madelyn co-founded NETWORK Against Malaria (NAM), a nonprofit that raises funds for the purchase and distribution of malaria nets in Uganda. NAM has grown to more than 35,000 volunteers and 21 chapters across the United States, raised more than US$100,000, and distributed 15,160 malaria nets. In addition to her work with NAM, Madelyn is co-founder and chair of the Belleville Area Humane Society Art Contest; co-creator of a jewelry recycling program; co-author of a cookbook for children's hospitals in the United States, Canada and South Africa; and a foster home provider for dogs and cats for her local humane society. She plans to earn a degree in business entrepreneurship and history with a minor in anthropology and will use this knowledge to develop communities in Uganda and the US, continue her work with NAM, and volunteer with Business Without Borders. ■

LOYAL SUPPORTER Joanna Lee

Joanna Lee has been a member of the Tainan Charming Zonta Club of ROC Taiwan since 1997 and currently serves as the Area 2 Director. This year the Tainan Charming Zonta Club is celebrating its 50th anniversary. A loyal and generous supporter of the Zonta International Foundation, Joanna served as district foundation ambassador for two biennia (2006–2008 and 2008–2010) and has made personal contributions to the Foundation for the last 13 consecutive years.

Joanna was widowed 36 years ago and raised her son and her daughter as a single parent. Thirty years ago Joanna started her own company, GenLight International Business Co., Ltd. which is now one of the leading exporters of disposable products in the world. GenLight's products are used in hospitals, pharmaceutical, and food processing companies.

Joanna was introduced to Zonta by long time member, Amy Lai. Joanna was deeply touched by Zonta's mission and feels that Zonta gives her the opportunity to help women all over the world. Joanna says that she continues to be an active Zontian because she has seen how our programs have improved the lives of women and children and wants to see that work continue. She is particularly inspired by the programs we support in sub-Saharan Africa.

Joanna believes that it is every Zontian's responsibility to consistently support the Foundation as well as their own clubs. She personally encourages District 31 Zontians to donate $10 each month to the Foundation because "without financial resources we cannot achieve Zonta's goals. ■

NEW DONOR Arja Ekdahl

Arja Ekdahl has been a member of the Lohja, Finland Club since 1996. Arja served as Club Treasurer from 1998–2005, Club President from 2005–2007, and is currently Assistant Foundation Ambassador for District 20.

When a colleague she greatly admired invited Arja to join Zonta, she accepted the invitation because she saw an opportunity to improve the status and rights of women worldwide. She is continually moved by the relief and joy Zonta International's programs bring to women globally. Arja is also committed to the support her club provides to local programs and says that donors also benefit when they see the changes their support has made.

Arja says that Zonta's work to end violence against women has kept her active and committed to the organization for 17 years. She is particularly moved by the services to rural African women that Zonta's international programs support. Arja also supports Zonta's scholarship programs because they "help young women achieve equal opportunities and use all their capabilities."

Until 2012 Arja directed most of her financial support to her local club activities and the donations her club made to the Zonta International Foundation. However, after a meeting with her District Foundation Ambassador in early 2012, Arja learned how important individual gifts were to ZIF. She tried the on-line donation service and found it to be very easy. Since then Arja has decided to devote her resources solely to Zonta because she says, "improving women's rights is closest to my heart."

Arja encourages Zontians to work hard to help achieve Zonta's goals. "Donating is a part of that work," she says, adding, "I feel privileged to live in such a safe and well organized society and therefore feel responsibility to help the less fortunate with my work and donations."

Arja and her husband have five grown children and three grandchildren (so far.) She works as a real estate agent in the company she and her husband started a few years ago. The company focuses on real estate investments. ■

MEMBER OF THE MARY E. JENKINS 1919 SOCIETY Sharron Miles

Sharron Miles joined Zonta in 1996 and is a member of the Zonta Club of Johnson County, Texas. Sharron served as club president from 1999 to 2001. She served as Area Director (2002–2004), Lt. Governor (2004–2006), Governor of District 10 (2006–2008), and is currently the Club Treasurer.

Sharron became interested in Zonta when she and her husband attended a club fundraiser soon after they moved to Cleburne, Texas. Sharron said she was impressed by the strong, professional women she met that evening. She soon found that the Zontians in her community were respected women who drove many initiatives, so Sharron was thrilled when her financial advisor invited her to become a member of the Johnson County Club.

Sharron says that it's Zonta's mission that has kept her active and committed to the organization for 17 years. She strongly believes that making women stronger makes the world a better place, and is glad that Zonta continues to focus on supporting programs that impact women. Sharron is an educator so Zonta's scholarship programs are especially important to her, as are the development of the Z and Golden Z clubs.

Sharron said that during her term as District 10 governor she decided to join the Mary E. Jenkins 1919 Society. She felt it was important to leave a legacy that can help ensure the future work of Zonta. "Zonta makes a difference. Lives are changed by what we do," Sharron says. She believes that Zonta gives women an opportunity to give their time and their treasure, and that if it is at time in your life when you can afford to make a legacy gift she encourages you to do so.

When she's not involved in Zonta activities Sharron works as a consultant to the Texas Education Agency where she helps turn around low performing schools. She and her husband, Danny, have been married for 43 years. They have a son and a daughter and 5 grandchildren. ■
