MISSION

Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy.

VISION

Zonta International envisions a world in which women's rights are recognized as human rights and every woman is able to achieve her full potential.

In such a world, women have access to all resources and are represented in decision making positions on an equal basis with men.

In such a world, no woman lives in fear of violence.

Dear Zontians and supporters of Zonta,

We are happy to report that we accomplished a lot in the first half of our Centennial Anniversary Biennium.

As part of our celebrations, Zonta launched its Centennial Anniversary Grants program to recognize charitable organizations and Zonta clubs working together to improve the lives of women and girls in their local communities.

Over the fiscal year ending 31 May 2019, Zonta International provided nearly half a million dollars to women pursuing careers in aerospace-applied sciences or engineering, business and public service. Additionally, we launched the new Women in Technology Scholarship to encourage women to pursue education, career opportunities and leadership roles in technology.

Through our service programs, we worked in 14 countries in our areas of focus: combating violence and providing education. We supported actions to end child marriage, to improve girls' education opportunities and empower vulnerable and refugee women by providing meaningful work and income.

Thank you very much for your commitment and your generous donations to Zonta International and the Zonta International Foundation. We are proud and grateful of everything we have achieved together.

Cordially,

CHILD MARRIAGE

A human rights violation that must be stopped

Each year, 12 million girls under the age of 18 are married around the world. That is one girl every 3 seconds who is at a greater risk of violence, trapped in poverty, often pulled out of school and at risk of serious health complications or even death due to early pregnancy. Child marriage directly hinders achievement of eight of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals. While progress has been made, efforts to address child marriage must be significantly scaled up.

-  12 million girls are married every year before they turn 18
-  Globally, 1 in 5 girls were married before age 18
-  About 250 million women were married before age 15
-  Girls with no education are 3 times as likely to marry by 18 as those with a secondary or higher education
-  90% of adolescent pregnancies in the developing world are to girls who are already married
-  Girls between the ages of 15 and 19 are twice as likely to die in childbirth as women in their 20s, and newborn children of younger mothers face greater risks of dying.
-  Early marriage doubles a teenager's chances of living in poverty and triples the likelihood she will be beaten by her spouse, compared to married adults.

Global Programme to End Child Marriage

An estimated 650 million women alive today were married as girls. In the last decade, the prevalence of child marriage has continued to decline, with the proportion of women who were married as children falling 15%. However, at this rate, it would take 50 years to eliminate child marriage worldwide. The UNFPA-UNICEF Global Programme to End Child Marriage is working to achieve lasting change on a significant scale by tackling the human rights violation in 12 of the most high-prevalence or high-burden countries: Bangladesh, Burkina Faso, Ethiopia, Ghana, India, Mozambique, Nepal, Niger, Sierra Leone, Uganda, Yemen and Zambia.

Project achievements in the last year include¹:

- Nearly 3 million adolescent girls were actively participating in a targeted program.
- 121,658 adolescent girls were supported to enroll and remain in formal and non-formal education.
- Nearly 14 million households are increasingly aware of the benefits of investing in adolescent girls and ending child marriage.
- 6,121 health and protection systems were supported to implement guidelines, protocols and standards for adolescent girl-friendly health and protection services.
- 6,270 non-formal/primary/secondary schools were supported to improve quality of education for adolescent girls.
- 11 of the 12 Global Programme countries have developed child marriage national action plans.
- In all 12 countries, country-specific, high-quality data and evidence were generated and shared on what works at scale to accelerate ending child marriage.

Phase II of the Global Programme will launch in 2020. Learn more about the project at www.zonta.org.

In addition to our support of the Global Programme, Zonta has participated in advocacy efforts around the world to shine a light on child marriage through the Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women campaign and other partnerships and events. For example, the Zonta USA Caucus, a member of the National Coalition to End Child Marriage in the United States, is helping thousands of Zonta members and other supporters in the U.S. speak out against child marriage in the United States. In March 2019, the Zonta Club of Pampanga in the Philippines held community workshops focused on creating awareness of early and forced marriage attended by 180 women and girls. And in May, more than 100 participants from 19 countries gathered in Vienna for a seminar on child marriage organized by Viennese Zontians and Golden Z club members. With our international project to end child marriage and advocacy efforts from members around the world, Zonta is actively working to put an end to this human rights violation.

Let Us Learn Madagascar

In Madagascar, one of the poorest countries in the world, one in four children between the ages of 6 and 10 is not in primary school and one in three children between 11 and 14 is not in lower secondary school. Improving children's educational opportunities leads to higher incomes, poverty reduction and the empowerment of girls. Zonta International's investment in Let Us Learn has been critical to enabling UNICEF to continue this education initiative that addresses the major issues facing Madagascar's most disadvantaged children, particularly girls. Zonta is currently supporting Phase II of the Let Us Learn project, being implemented in the regions of Androy and Atsimo Andrefana in southern Madagascar.

Project achievements in the last year include:

- The foundations for two new classrooms were laid at Marolinta lower secondary school in an isolated rural zone in the Androy region. The classrooms will benefit up to 100 students per year, and designs include gender-specific latrine blocks and a sports field.
- More than 550 girls benefited from conditional cash transfers to reduce the burden of school costs and enable them to attend school.
- 795 out-of-school girls received school supplies to support their school reintegration.
- 30 children's clubs were established to promote children's rights in lower secondary schools and 21 school directors were trained on child rights and protection. As a result, 389 children who experienced violence received care and support.
- 396 teachers in 109 lower secondary schools in Atsimo Andrefana strengthened their teaching skills during visits by pedagogical support providers.
- 23,400 girls and 2,471 teachers in all public lower secondary schools in the two regions received teaching and learning charts with accompanying teachers' guides.

Eid bi Eid (Hand in Hand)

Eid bi Eid is a multi-year initiative to support the government of Jordan in addressing issues of employment and gender inequality, exacerbated by the impact of the Syrian refugee crisis. The project includes implementing Oasis centers, which empower women by providing meaningful work and money, and encouraging them to take on leadership roles in the community. At maximum capacity, the four Oases in the refugee camps provide more than 405 daily cash-for-work opportunities on three-, six- and 12-month rotations.

Project achievements include:

- 4,753 women and men benefited from cash-for-work opportunities.
- More than 15,504 individuals received education services.
- Women reported they were able to generate an income of 600% more than before their rotation.
- 100% of women reported an increase in their sense of dignity, self-confidence and empowerment.
- 93% of women reported a decrease in domestic violence.
- 75% of women reported an increase in their participation in household decision-making.
- 100% of women reported an improvement in household nutrition.
- An average of 679 children benefited per month from childcare services.
- 760 women received counseling, with 133 women receiving referrals.
- The government of Jordan and humanitarian partners adopted a total of six policies related to women's access to decent work.
- In 2019, eight more Oasis centers were added in host communities.

Empowering women through education

Education is a human right. It has the power to save and improve the lives of women and girls, which leads to healthier families and stronger communities. An investment in the education of female students yields high returns, such as breaking cycles of poverty, fostering economic growth and empowering women both in the home and workplace.

Because of our generous donors, over the last 81 years, Zonta International has provided nearly US$12.5 million to support the education of thousands of women around the world through the Amelia Earhart Fellowship, Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship and the Young Women in Public Affairs Award. At the end of 2019, Zonta expanded its educational programs with the new Women in Technology Scholarship to encourage women to pursue education, career opportunities and leadership roles in technology.

Amelia Earhart Fellowship

US$300,000 awarded to 30 women from 18 countries

Women make up only 25 percent of the workforce in the aerospace industry. Zonta International's Amelia Earhart Fellowship encourages women to expand their horizons by exploring occupations and holding positions beyond those traditionally held by females. Since 1938, Zonta has awarded 1,573 Amelia Earhart Fellowships, totaling US$10 million, to 1,144 women pursuing Ph.D./doctoral degrees in aerospace-applied sciences or aerospace-applied engineering. The 2018 Amelia Earhart Fellows, diverse in their backgrounds and research fields, exhibit exceptional promise in advancing research in the fields of aeronautics, aerospace engineering, planetary sciences and more.

Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship

US$110,000 awarded to 31 women from 20 countries

In the business world, women still make up a minority of leadership roles. Only 21.2 percent of S&P companies' board seats are occupied by females, and just 5.2 percent of those companies' CEOs are women. In the last 21 years, Zonta International has awarded 564 Jane M. Klausman (JMK) Women in Business Scholarships, totaling more than US$1.3 million, to 428 women pursuing a business program with majors in accounting, economics, finance, business management, marketing, operations management, human resources management, international business or entrepreneurship. The 2018 JMK Women in Business Scholars, with a wide range of personal and professional backgrounds, demonstrate outstanding potential in the fields of business, economics, finance and more.

Young Women in Public Affairs Award

US$88,000 to 32 women from 19 countries

Just under 25 percent of all national parliamentarians are women. Zonta International believes young women are the key to women's advancement in the field of public service. Zonta International's Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Award recognizes young women, ages 16-19, for demonstrating leadership skills and a commitment to public service and civic causes and encourages them to continue their participation in public and political life. Since 1990, Zonta has presented 888 awards, totaling US$924,750, to 756 young women. Like the young women before them, the 2018 YWPA Awardees have impressive records of volunteerism and promising futures and careers in fields ranging from politics to medicine, law and more.

ZONTA INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION SUPPORTERS

The Zonta International Foundation is grateful to all Zontians and friends of Zonta International around the world for generously supporting the international service projects and educational programs funded through the Foundation each biennium. Together, we have worked to empower women and girls worldwide and change their lives by improving their health and socio-economic status; creating opportunities for vulnerable and excluded girls to realize their rights to an education in a secure and protective environment; working to reduce early marriage and early pregnancy; and enabling women to further their educational and career goals, while ensuring that talented women are given opportunities to succeed. We are deeply thankful to the following individuals for their gifts to the Zonta International Foundation from 1 June 2018–31 May 2019. We recognize the following donors for their cumulative gifts to the Foundation.

Establishing a legacy of empowering women and girls

Mary E. Jenkins' legacy extends from the newspaper industry to Zonta. As the owner and president of the Syracuse Herald, founder of one of the nine original Zonta clubs, and the first president of the Confederation of Zonta Clubs, Mary has blazed the trail for generations of women. To honor her leadership, Zonta International Foundation's planned giving society was established in her name.

Like Mary, those who make provisions for Zonta in their estate plans are creating a legacy dedicated to empowering women and girls. Charitable estate planning allows you to help secure the future of the Zonta International Foundation and support its life-changing programs.

We are grateful to the individuals listed above who have entrusted their legacy to help Zonta to continue to improve women's lives, their children's lives and the communities in which they live and work.

We invite you to add your name to the growing list of Zontians who have already designated part of their estate to the Zonta International Foundation. Everyone who informs us of their provision of this kind will become a member of the Mary E. Jenkins 1919 Society.

To learn more about the Mary E. Jenkins 1919 Society, contact Zonta International Headquarters at zifoundation@zonta.org.

2019 FISCAL YEAR FINANCIAL REVIEW

As Zonta International enters its second century, it is recognized as a leading global organization. A significant factor in this success is the strong financial position of both Zonta International and Zonta International Foundation, which enables the board to focus on Zonta's core mission of service and advocacy.

On these pages, we have included summarized financial information for the 2019 fiscal year closed on 31 May 2019, marking the first year of the 2018-2020 Biennium. The Consolidated Audited Financial Statements are available on foundation.zonta.org for your review.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Projects and Programs

- All contributions are tracked by fund to ensure 100 percent of donations go directly to our projects and programs.
- Partner projects Ending Child Marriage, Let Us Learn Madagascar and Eid bi Eid were supported with US$4 million.
- 109 educational scholarships, fellowships and awards were provided to women and girls in 39 countries.

Administration

- The operating cycles of both Zonta International and the Foundation cover a biennium—two-year period.
 - Zonta International includes the convention during the first year of the biennium (2018–2019), which significantly increases total expenses over the previous year (2017–2018).
 - The Foundation expenses grant contracts in the first year of the biennium, which significantly increases total expenses over the prior year.
- Foundation dividends and interest covered US$224,828, which is approximately one half of Foundation management and general and fundraising expenses. This removed a portion of the burden from Zonta International.

Investing for the Future

- Foundation and endowment investments had positive growth.
- Endowment funds have reached US$4,921,693, which enables long-term support of Zonta International Foundation programs. The original contributions of US$3,910,458 will be invested forever while investment income will be available for use. Once the funds reach US$10 million, US$500,000 will be available annually for use based on our 5% spending policy.

Respectfully submitted,

Mari McKenzie

Treasurer/Secretary 2018–2020
