

Representation at the United Nations and Council of Europe Policy

Introduction

Zonta International is recognized as having: (1) general consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC); (2) consultative status with the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO); (3) special relationships with United Nations entities promoting women's rights; and (4) participatory status with the Council of Europe.

Representation

Zonta International may choose to assign representatives to the United Nations and to the Council of Europe. Representatives shall be appointed by the Zonta International president-elect with the approval of the Zonta International Board prior to the biennium in which they will serve. Representatives shall function in accordance with the guidelines approved by the Zonta International Board.

Document control

Original Document	Date: December 2021
First adopted by the board	Date: December 2021
Most recent review by the risk manager	Date: December 2021
Amended policy adopted by the board	Date: N/A
Convention 2022 update	Date: June 2022
Next review date	Date: September 2026
Committee Responsible	Zonta International Board

Printed hard copies of controlled documents are considered uncontrolled. Any person using hard copies for ease of reference are required to determine the up-to-date status of any hard copy document ensuring it matches the current electronic version.